Our Services

Behavioral Health Services

HYC provides evidence-based, trauma-informed behavioral health services for individuals, families, and groups at our offices, school campuses, community locations, and client homes. HYC's "Starting Point" substance use disorder outpatient treatment program also provides substance abuse counseling to youth ages 12-17 and adults.

Youth Services

Our Youth Services Programs provide substance use prevention and education, youth leadership and advocacy, and diversion case management services. HYC's Community Collaboration Program brings together various community sectors that develop tools and resources to educate and empower youth and parents from our community.

Family Services

Family Services programs provide intake, assessment, counseling, education, individualized case management, and linkage to comprehensive community resources that aim to improve family functioning, strengthen the family system, reduce child abuse and neglect, increase child safety, and build protective factors within families.

Homeless & Housing Support Services

Our Homeless Services programs deliver coordinated housing and service interventions for homeless individuals and families living on the street in Los Angeles County to achieve permanent housing stability.
